

Truth. Battle of Wills. Mental Twists.
Sacrifice. Power. Tax Powers. Military.
Presidential. State. Federal. Sex. (almost Kidding) War.

Shakespeare and The Bible have a contender
For best examination of men at their worst And best upon reading The Federalist. Freedom
In candid and open light, a True expose the basis
And requirements of balance and distribution Of power(s) among men. drhall/bearcreekresearch

These 85 essays or letters were contributed By Hamilton's 51, Madison's 26 and Jay's 5 (illness) during the year of 1787, history was made sure.

The fathers sought to avoid Creating a Federal Monster on one hand And avoid State contention on the other.

Note the Federalist Papers in which I Read in Madison's No. 57 the charges Of oligarchy vs. Republic vs. Federal Government – "fear to avoid is the Sacrifice of the masses for the Aggrandizement Of the Few."

Our protected rights were to be born upon The shoulder, as noted in Madison No.57, of elected Federal Representatives of humble sons, not haughty heirs, not the rich, not the learned, more than the ignorant, should comprise the body of obscure and unpropitious fortune, and compose the elected protectors of the great body of the United States!

TRUTH IS FAILED ...

Constitutional Dictatorship ... Executive Powers Lead us to embark upon undeclared war, in the escalating powers of an 'emergency government'.

"Powerful individuals are enemies to a national government in every possible shape." Publius (Hamilton-Madison)